Our Fall Series, as those of you who stayed know, closed with another beautiful Sunday to go home on. Fair wind and tide, good visibility, and a warm sun. One of these years Sunday will happen on Friday or Saturday, so, don't forget your winter storage reservation at Block Island.

Friday turned out to be a fine sail, although not too much in the tactical business, once you decided to tack back into the Rhode Island shore at the whistle buoy. The wind lifted you (after it came in and lifted the boats which stood to the south) and we all had a nice sail to Nebraska and a fast reach in. Nebraska did seem a bit roomier than it was in the Spring, which speaks well for the southeast wind.

Saturday afternoon was lovely - what else, after a miserable night and wild morning, and although all hands regretted missing a race, (even some of Friday's winners) the sound decision not to race was duly and properly reached. This also had the advantage of allowing everyone (those who stayed, that is) to enjoy the beauties of Block Island at a leisurely pace.

One reminder to those who got underway for home on Saturday - do not do so with the wheel still lashed.

Don't forget to save the date for the Annual Meeting and - winter well.

Publicity Chairman
