Vice Commodore's Report April 9, 1988

The head count for this evening's shore party is 253 persons--down approximately 50 from last year. This is probably a reflection on the success of last year's event, plus the fact that we had an abbreviated fall series.

The Commodore, Rear Commodore & I met at the Raddison in New London last month; and, after again reviewing their facilities, are of the opinion that the event should be held at the present site for at least one more year.

I would particularly like to bring to the Board's attention that we are fortunate to again have the volunteer help of Eileen Ames with tonight's event. Without Eileen's help this event just wouldn't have come off with the ease that it has.

Respectfully submitted,

George Hohenstein
