Weather-wise, our Fall Series must be rated an improvement over both last fall and this spring. A quickly closing in fog on Friday reminded us of the need to always keep a good DR and Saturday's wind hole at LBI undid several leaders who deserved a better result. A few followers dove right in, despite the warnings and were rewarded with a grandstand view of the great circle boats. Sunday, as usual, was the best day of all. It is interesting that 44 of the 190 yachts entered in the racing classes carried a penalty and only six of these finished in top three of their class. The handicappers must be doing well to keep almost one fourth of the fleet in the money.

Enjoy the fall cruising, have a good winter, and ruminant over the start of Class C-1, if you saw or were in it.
