

The Dering Harbor is one of the newest, most prestigious resort complexes in the Eastern United States.

Located in a setting of great natural beauty on Shelter Island overlooking the picturesque harbor from which it takes its name, The Dering Harbor is the ideal facility for total relaxation.

The accommodations are deluxe, and reflect the tranquil, unhurried pace that has been the hallmark of Shelter Island for many generations. They are:

Waterfront Villas directly overlooking Dering Harbor, consisting of a large living room with fireplace, covered porch, kitchenette, dining area and two twin-bedded bedrooms each with a complete private bathroom. (Rate based on occupancy by four persons)

Waterview Villas with the same facilities, but not directly waterfront. They do, however, have some view of the harbor. (Rate based on occupancy by four persons)

Waterfront Suites directly overlooking Dering Harbor, consist of a large living room, covered porch, kitchenette, dining area, bedroom with one double and one single bed, and a complete bathroom. (Rate based on occupancy by two persons)

Suites with the same facilities but not directly waterfront. They do, however, all have some view of the harbor. (Rate based on occupancy by two persons)

Deluxe Rooms have two beds and a sitting area with a sofa which is convertible into two single beds, a complete bathroom, and a porch. They are located in the main building and do not have a view of the harbor. (Rate based on occupancy by two persons)
