

OFF SOUNDINGS CLUB

February 24, 1958

OFFICE OF
THE SECRETARY
P. O. Box 502
New Haven, Conn.

TO THE MEMBERS:

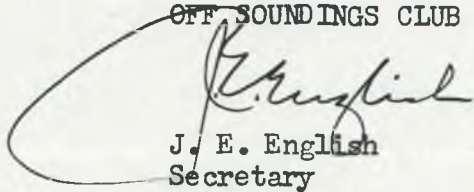

The Board of Governors has been deeply concerned with the financial problems that seem to be facing the Club. Though all items of expenditure receive careful scrutiny, the Club has not been immune from mounting costs experienced by almost every other endeavor.

It was therefore the Governors' considered opinion that an assessment should be made against each member this year of $7.00 and that starting January 1, 1959, the annual dues would be increased to $10.00 per annum. This action having been taken in accordance with Article XIII of the Constitution.

The Governors would greatly appreciate it, therefore, if you would consider this notice a bill for the assessment this year and forward a check drawn to the Off Soundings Club to the Treasurer, Mr. Frederick K. Daggett, Box 128, Essex, Connecticut.

Very truly yours,

OFF SOUNDINGS CLUB

J. E. English
Secretary
